STUDY THEY WOLLD NEVER DO IT

DOGS AND CATS ABANDONED, LOST AND ADOPTED IN SPAIN IN 2018

BY ANIMAL SHELTERS 151,673

2009

145,057

2010

144,660

2012

2013

EVOLUTIONARY CHART

OF ANIMALS TAKEN IN

140,191

2014

137,831

2015

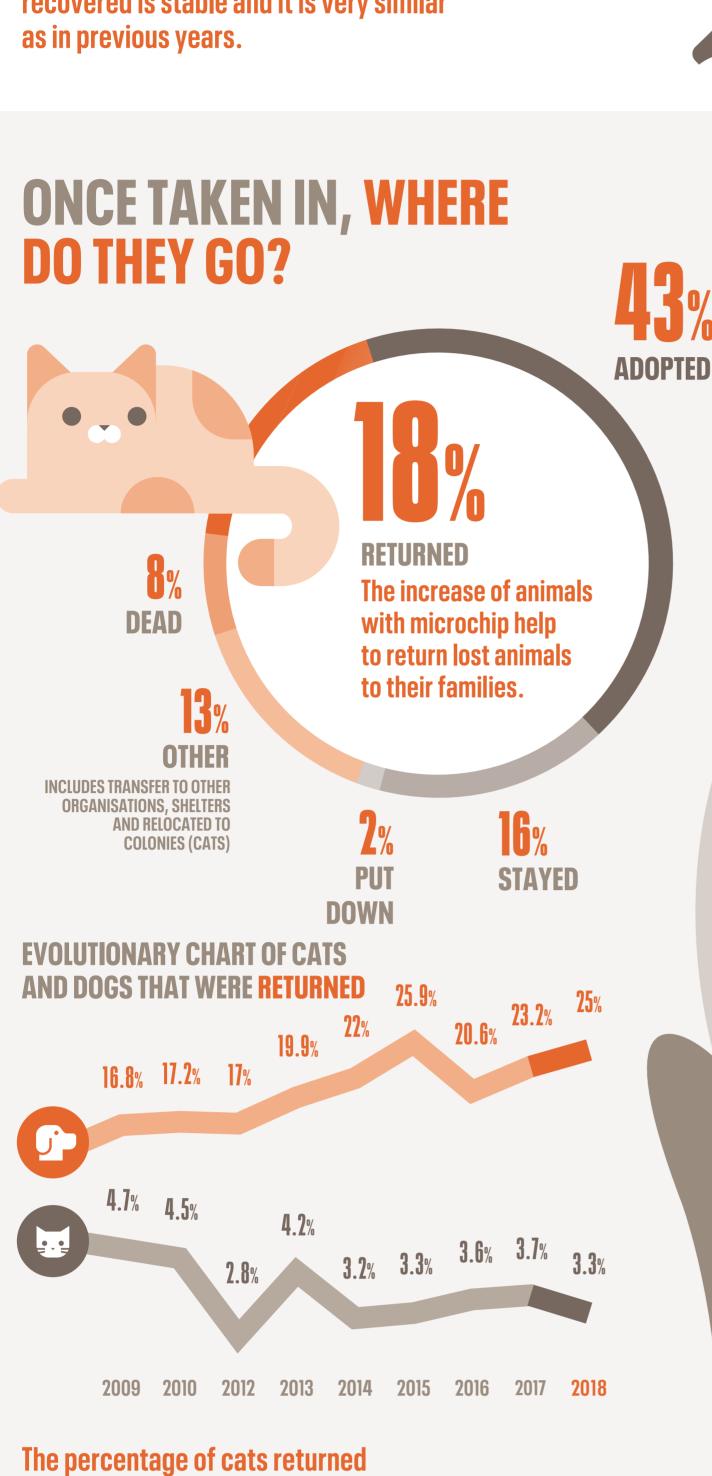

137,782

33,719

138,307

138,407

Through 2018, the number of animals recovered is stable and it is very similar as in previous years.

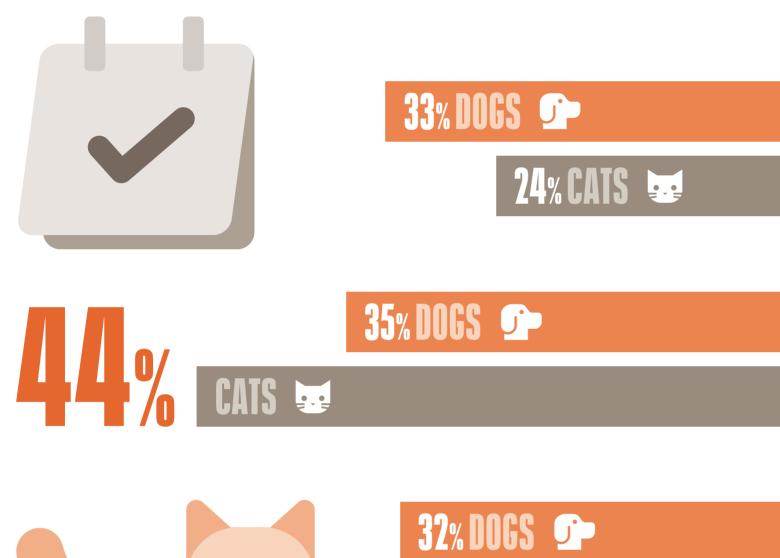

2016 2017 2018

WHEN ARE THEY RECOVERED?

to their owners is much lower than dogs.

33% CATS

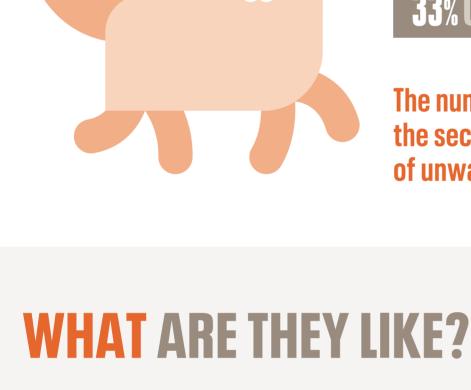

THEY ARRIVE IDENTIFIED

34%

3rd QUARTER OF THE YEAR

1st QUARTER OF THE YEAR

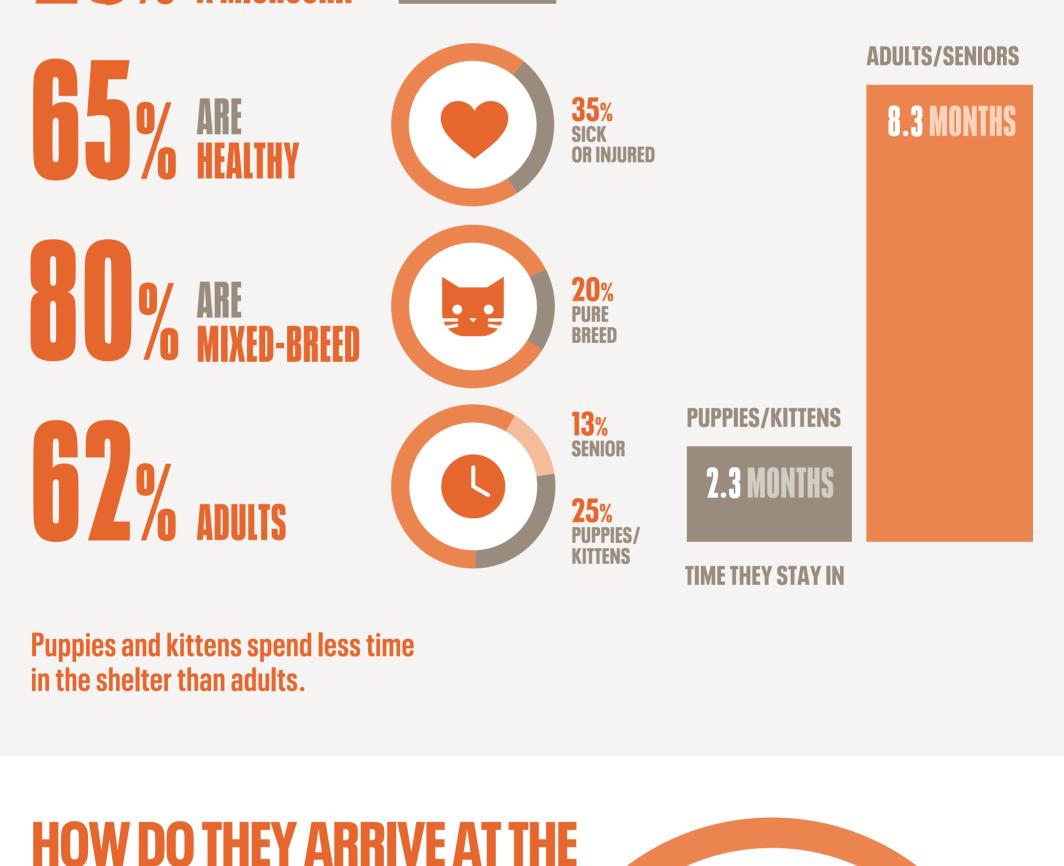

2nd OUARTER OF THE YEAR

the second quarter of the year due to the impact of unwanted litters after the breeding season.

The number of cats that arrive is higher during

25% HAVE A MICROCHIP

PERSON ABANDONING THEM

Many of the abandoned cats do

ANIMAL SHELTER?

Most have been found by the or by a private individual.

organisation itself, by the police

manage cat colonies. AVERAGE NUMBEROF CATS PER COLONY

CATS MANAGED BY

ANIMAL SHELTERS

IN THIS STUDY

51% of the organisations

that have participated in this study regularly

However, as indicated in the feeding Whitepaper of this study, the total sterilization litter control number of cat colonies in Spain

veterinary care

AVERAGE NUMBER OF CAT COLONIES MANAGED BY EACH ORGANIZATION

can be much higher.

Many animal shelters in Spain regularly manage cat colonies, taking care of:

Once again, unwanted litters

MAIN REASONS FOR ABANDONMENT

= 15% UNWANTED LITTERS † 13% END OF HUNTING SEASON

FOR OTHER ANIMALS

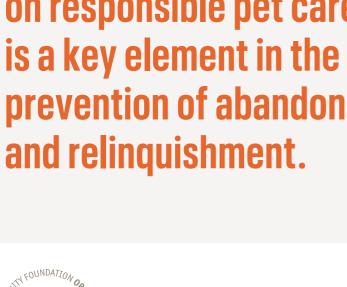

www.fundacion-affinity.org/en

ADOPT TO GIVE THEM A HOME AND MAKE ROOM

Data taken from the Affinity Foundation Study on Abandonment and Adoption.

www.fundacion-affinity.org/en/abandonment-and-adoption-studies

Affinity Foundation Animals & Health